

Police Remembrance Trust

Patron: His Majesty The King

Newsletter - September 2024

National Police Memorial Day Special

This is the final update ahead of our 21st National Police Memorial Day which is being held in Glasgow this year, on Sunday 29th September at the Royal Concert Hall. We hope you find it useful.

Most importantly...

If you haven't yet registered to attend, please do so here - REGISTER TO ATTEND.

You don't need an invitation - everyone is welcome.

If you have any queries regarding the booking process, please email

NPMD@rollofhonour.police.uk.

Please note for those attending, general entry to the venue is via Buchanan Street. For those with mobility considerations/requiring assistance, their parties should gain access via the Killermont Street entrance.

Post on our Tribute Wall

The NPMD Tribute Wall is up and running. Please share your memories and photos of loved ones lost in service.

Kindly sponsored by the National Association of Retired Police Officers (NARPO), the Tribute Wall is a yearly tradition and will remain online until one month after NPMD weekend.

You can find it on the PRT website by clicking here and scrolling down the page.

Important: Times to note

Sunday 29th
September 2024

Royal Concert Hall,
Glasgow

11.30am - 4pm
Vintage police vehicle display, George
Square

12pm
Parade from George
Square

12.40pm
Police Scotland
Flypast

1.30pm
All seated in auditorium

2 - 3.40pm
NPMD Service
followed by post event
refreshments,
courtesy of
Serve and Protect

#NPMD24

Registered charity no.
1179754 & SC048982

To donate to the charity, please scan the QR code.
We are grateful for any support you are able to give.

Police Remembrance Trust

Patron: His Majesty The King

Parade from George Square

Ahead of the NPMD Service, there will be a Parade from George Square involving the Police Scotland and Scottish Police Federation Pipe Band, and Standard bearers carrying force flags from all over the UK. Anyone is welcome to follow the procession from George Square to the Royal Concert Hall.

IMPORTANT: Anyone following the Parade and wishing access to the Royal Concert Hall to attend the service must register for the event. If Standard Bearers/band/choir are bringing a guest(s), they will also need to register. REGISTER TO ATTEND HERE.

Click this link for more on George Square.

Guard of Honour

A Guard of Honour will be in place at the Royal Concert Hall on Buchanan Street, comprising police officers from all over the UK and abroad. They will be in place ready to welcome the pipe band and force standards procession.

Vintage Police Cars on display

We are delighted that there will be 16 vintage police vehicles on display at George Square from 11.30am - 4pm on Sunday 29th September.

If you have time before or after the service, please pop along to show your support.

Police Scotland flypast

There will be a Police Scotland flypast above the Royal Concert Hall at 12.40pm.

IMPORTANT: Those wishing to be outside for the flypast must remain outside and NOT enter the Concert Hall before. This is for security reasons. Immediately after the flypast, to be seated by 1.30pm, please enter the venue via the reception desk at the Buchanan Street entrance (Killermont Street for those requiring assistance).

Online service

An online service, featuring highlights from NPMD will be posted on our website w/c 30th September 2024.

email NPMD@rollofhonour.police.uk

visit www.policememorial.org.uk

✕ @Police_Memorial  www.facebook.com/policememorial

